

What would Confucius do?

1. Confucius doesn't see the importance of wealth and doesn't take advantage by the position in society when it comes to well-education and intelligence, therefore he would vote for the first candidate.
2. If in the same situation as Ted, Confucius would let his parents to move in with him, since he values his idea of respecting the elders.
3. Confucius would want to resolve this situation with peace, so he would tell the residents to respectfully ask the mayor to improve the poor support of the government.
4. Confucius would tell Amanda that betraying her friend and lying to her society in order to gain a larger profit is not worth it. She should cooperate with her allies and keep on improving for her to have profit and grow in her society long-term.
